Good Work By Fire Department.

The prompt and most efficient work of the Paris Fire Department prevented a disastrous conflagration in this city Tuesday morning at 2 o'clock. The fire started in a coal bin in the "Sugar Bowl," the candy and fruit store of Mr. Edward Grubbs, whose loss is between $400 and $500. Wm. Graham, a clerk for Mr. Grubbs, lost $140 in cash which he had stored away on a kitchen shelf. The dense smoke awakened Mr. Grubbs and it was with difficulty he got Graham up. The adjoining art store, just opened by Misses Lowry & Howard, was considerably damaged by smoke and water, which is covered by insurance.

Choice Flowers.
